

Lotte World Amusement Park

Lotte World is the perfect spot for entertainment and sightseeing in the heart Seoul and welcomes about six million visitors every year. It's a theme park filled with thrilling rides, an ice rink, and parades, as well as a folk museum, a lake and much more. The structure inside makes use of natural sunlight and is open to visitors year-round, regardless of the weather.

Lotte World is divided into an Adventure theme inside the park and outside is a Magic Island theme beside Seokchonhosu Lake.

Lotte World Adventure has multiple sections representing different countries where you can enjoy parades, films, laser shows and a variety of international cuisines.

Magic Island is home to the dazzling Magic Castle, as well as steep, thrilling rides that you can't experience anywhere else in Korea. For a peaceful walk, visit the trail around the lake.

The Gyro Drop and Gyro Swing rides are top attractions; the Gyro Drop is a vertical 70-meter drop and the Gyro Swing gives the thrilling sensation of being inside a tornado.

The Flume Ride is a long boat with high waves and the Spanish Pirate Ship swings at an electrifying 75 degrees.

More than just rides, Lotte World also has a variety of parades and laser shows. Two hundred performers sing and dance in the World Carnival Parade, which adds to the excitement of the park.

After enjoying the rides, don't forget to skate on the ice rink, which is opened throughout the year. The pleasant atmosphere of the rink is perfect for families and couples to enjoy.

The Folk Museum is the most popular museum for foreign tourists. Folk cultural items that go back 5,000 years are displayed, as well as miniature villages and a playground.
